

110TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. J. RES. 38

Waiving certain provisions of the Trade Act of 1974 relating to the appointment of a Deputy United States Trade Representative.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JUNE 5, 2008

Mr. GRASSLEY introduced the following joint resolution; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Finance

JOINT RESOLUTION

Waiving certain provisions of the Trade Act of 1974 relating to the appointment of a Deputy United States Trade Representative.

Whereas paragraph (3) of section 141(b) of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2171(b)(3)) provides certain limitations with respect to the appointment of the United States Trade Representative and Deputy United States Trade Representatives;

Whereas Deanna Tanner Okun has provided significant public service to the United States;

Whereas her years of public service include serving as an aide to a United States Senator with responsibility for international trade and foreign policy issues and, after appointment by the President and confirmation by the Senate, as a Commissioner on the independent United States

International Trade Commission, including serving as Chairman of the Commission; and

Whereas it is appropriate to waive the provisions of paragraph (3) of section 141(b) of the Trade Act of 1974 with respect to the appointment of Deanna Tanner Okun as Deputy United States Trade Representative: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (3) of
4 section 141(b) of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C.
5 2171(b)(3)) or any other provision of law, the President,
6 acting by and with the advice and consent of the Senate,
7 is authorized to appoint Deanna Tanner Okun as Deputy
8 United States Trade Representative.
